

Bio / Currilicum Vitae

Name : Bob Copray

Born : 1968

1991-1996

Working as a productmanager at the workshop of self-manufacturing designer "Piet Hein Eek", while studying at the Higher Collage of Arts in Arnhem.

1996

Started Collabaration with Stefan Scholten, building a collection of seating-furniture under the name "Copray & Scholten".

1997-2000

Numerous of exhibitions throughout the world, Amsterdam, Milan, London, Paris, San Francisco and Tokyo.

Purchased in all of these places and well published in this period of time.

1997

One of the Founders of the "Dutch Individuals". Goal; presenting young Dutch self-manufacturing designers in places outside the Netherlands.

Purchased by the Stedelijk Museum in Amsterdam.

Won the Dutch Furniture Award for young designers.

1998

First exhibition in Milan with the Dutch Individuals on the grounds of Alessandro Mendini.

Purchased by the Centraal Museum in Utrecht.

1999

Won the encouraging award for industrial design at the Amsterdamse kunstprijzen.

2000

Selected and published in the International Design Yearbook by Ingo Maurer.

Stopped collaborating with Stefan Scholten.

2001-2004

Start to focus on interior architecture

Designed and mostly self-manufactured several interiors for restaurants, villa's and offices.

At the moment Bob Copray is collaborating with Anthony Kleinepier, designing the interior of the cultural popcentre "de Effenaar" build by MVRDV Architects.